What are the Gay Games?

Conceived by Olympian Tom Waddell in 1982, the Games bring together a global community every four years in friendship to experience participation, to elevate consciousness and self-esteem, and to achieve a form of cultural and intellectual collaboration.

- 35 sports and cultural events
- Open to all adults regardless of sexual orientation, transgender status or athletic ability
- Past hosts: San Francisco, Vancouver, Sydney, New York, Amsterdam & Chicago
- 2010 Games in Cologne attracted 10,000 participants from 70+ countries
- 2018 Games: Paris

What's happening in Cleveland+Akron, Ohio?

- August 9-16, 2014
- Estimated 30,000+ visitors, including 10,000 participants
- Culture, sports, entertainment all week, from opening to closing ceremonies
- Games-related fun at theaters, galleries, museums, nightclubs, restaurants

Who should get involved in the Games?

All Northeast Ohioans who want to support a global event in their backyard. Adults who like to have fun, play sports or music, sing, show their support are encouraged to sign up to participate, volunteer, donate or sponsor the event.

Show the power of Cleveland+Akron, and make CLE+AKR tops in registration through 2014. Be part of LGBT history in America's heartland.

How do I get involved?
