Join Hollywood's favorite has-been as she sings the songs and tells the tales of her long, arduous climb to the middle. John Vessels is Lillian Baxter--with Jay Schwandt at the piano as her third and favorite ex-husband, Corky Weinstopper. Together they carry you through a cabaret comedy that chronicles Baxter's childhood, early years at MGM, and short but colorful television career—all the time highlighting Lillian's upbeat outlook on a life just left of the spotlight. It's The Great American Songbook in 3 inch heels!
